

Zoe A. Keve

Denver, CO. 80218
(802) 238 5262
zoe.keve@gmail.com

Education

- The Colorado College May 2009
Colorado Springs, CO.
Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Science, GPA: 3.6
Relevant Coursework: Sustainable Development; Ecological Economics; Energy and the Environment;
Hydrology and Chemistry: Water; Senior thesis: Nutrient removal by microalgae from urban wastewater.
- Associated Colleges of the Midwest, The University of Dar es Salaam Fall 2008
Dar es Salaam, Tanzania.
Semester of travel and study focusing on Ecology, Anthropology and Swahili Language

Relevant Experience

- Marine Science Education Intern June-August 2009
The Herring Gut Learning Center, Port Clyde, ME.
- Worked as a marine science educator and camp counselor
 - Maintained aquaponics system: disassembly, water quality testing and greenhouse responsibilities
 - Carried out relations and advertising for public outreach summer lecture series
 - Scheduled and supervised summer volunteers
- Venture Grant Recipient February 2009
The Colorado College, Colorado Springs, CO.
- Awarded $870 for laboratory work on the nutrient removal rates of freshwater microalgal species from a local wastewater source.
 - Researched potential for integrated system with biodiesel development
 - Presented research to professors, peers and the public
- Climate Change Student Intern May-July 2008
The Center for Multiscale Modeling of Atmospheric Processes (CMMAP) Fort Collins, CO.
- Conducted independent research and poster presentation on biofuel development
 - Attended and assisted at the Colorado Renewable Energy Conference (CREC)
 - Assisted in climate change education youth summer camp program
- Student Intern May-July 2008
The National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL)
Department of Environment, Energy and Transportation, Denver CO.
- Researched and published “Alternative and Advanced Fuels: State Policy Options” biofuels report
 - Answered and assisted with information requests from state legislatures
 - Attended the NCSL annual conference in New Orleans, LA.
- Instructor and Student Mentor September 2007- May 2009
Roots and Shoots Club, The Colorado College, Colorado Springs, CO.
- Taught environmental science program in local elementary school
 - Developed curriculum and executed interactive lessons with fifth grade students two class periods a week
 - Organized service learning activities

