

Kelly Erin O'Toole

(703) 946-4865
kelly.otoole@colorado.edu

1368 S Chase Court
Lakewood, CO 80232

Education

MA in Cultural Anthropology
Certificate in Environment, Policy, and Society
University of Colorado Boulder (2014 – 2017)
GPA (4.0 scale): 3.968

BA in Anthropology
Biology Major with Honors
The College of William & Mary (2010 – 2014)
GPA (4.0 scale): 3.55

Skills

Grant writing; Public speaking; Lesson planning; Application of GPS and compass navigation; Extensive experience with SPSS, Stata, Esri, and Microsoft Office products

Academic Research

- ❖ 2015: Graduate Research Assistant., data analysis on Maasai livelihood diversification, Tanzania
- ❖ 2014: National Science Foundation (NSF) Archaeological Fieldwork Assistant in French Polynesia
- ❖ 2011-14: NSF IRES Fellow, multi-year research project on behavioral ecology of the red-backed fairy-wren and multi-stakeholder fire management practices in Northern Australia (Undergraduate Thesis)
- ❖ 2011: 'Teen Trainers' Program Coordinator; community-based research on benefits of dog-training for local at-risk youth (ages 13-16)

Work Experience

- ❖ May 2017-Present: Baron Education Associate Manager of Curriculum & Training (SAT/ACT Prep)
- ❖ Summer 2016: Thorne Nature Experience Summer Environmental Educator, taught week-long camps in wetland ecology, geology, sustainability, and women in ecology
- ❖ Fall 2014-Fall 2016: CU Boulder Anthropology Teaching Assistant, taught three recitations for 'Culture & Environment' course
- ❖ Summer 2013: Assistant. Naturalist and Environmental Educator, Potomac Overlook Regional Park, Arlington, VA, involved camp counseling, wildlife caretaking, and leading public tours of park
- ❖ Winter 2012: Smithsonian Museum of Natural History, Data Collections Intern (1846 Project)
- ❖ 2010-12: Professor's Assistant for Dr. Joanne Braxton, Cummings Prof. of English and Africana Studies

Community Service

- ❖ 2010-14: Heritage Humane Society (Williamsburg, VA) Tier-Two Volunteer
 - Creator of 'Teen Trainers' Program for local at-risk youth, administrative liaison for William & Mary students, summer camp counselor, field coordinator, 600+ hours of service recorded
- ❖ 2013-14: William & Mary Circle K International (CKI) Service Vice President
- ❖ 2010-12: William & Mary Sharpe Community Scholars Program Fellow

Grants, Fellowships, and Awards

- ❖ Grants and Fellowships: CU Boulder Anthropology Department Graduate Fellowship ($7,100); W&M Sharpe Community Studies Research Grant ($3,000); W&M Charles Center Research Grant ($175)
- ❖ Awards: 2016 Sam Haskell-Houghtelin Scholarship for Scholarly Service; 2014 Kiwanis Regional Delaney Award for Community Service; 2012 CKI District Service Recognition Award

References

- ❖ Available upon request