

Brianne Eby

---

EDUCATION

---

- August 2016      University of Colorado, Boulder, CO
M.S. Environmental Studies
- May 2013        Indiana University, Bloomington, IN
B.A. Psychology with Honors
International Studies and French Minors
-

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

---

- Research Assistant, The Brookings Institution Centennial Scholar Initiative      4/17-Present
- Managed a project involving stakeholders from 15 local governments and national policy organizations focused on implementing nationwide city-driven commitments to enabling social mobility and youth prosperity
  - Wrote blogs and magazine articles on growth, governance, and finance in cities
  - Created content and designed policy presentations in Keynote
- Research Assistant, University of Colorado-Denver Civil Engineering Program      12/16-8/17
- Designed and administered survey on transportation and community engagement behaviors
  - Analyzed survey data for presentation to the Denver Regional Council of Governments
- Graduate Teaching Assistant, CU-Boulder Environmental Design Program      8/16-5/17
- Developed curriculum and delivered lectures on local planning policies and human behavior in the built environment
  - Advised over 200 students on course content and professional development
- Graduate Research Assistant, CU-Boulder Environmental Justice Group;
Environment & Behavior Lab      8/14-5/17
- Helped form the Just Transition Collaborative, an academic and local government partnership focused on ensuring a just transition to Boulder's renewable energy economy
  - Conducted literature reviews and wrote policy briefs on environmental justice and pro-environmental behaviors
  - Designed experiments, analyzed data, and presented research on campus waste sorting compliance and environmental identity formation for over 1000 research participants
-

ADVOCACY AND VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

---

- Member, Community Cycles Advocacy Committee, Boulder, CO      4/16-4/17
- Engaged with City officials on redesigning bikeways and implementing Vision Zero principles
  - Served as a liaison to the East Arapahoe Community Working Group, which envisioned the redevelopment of a large transportation corridor
- Graduate Intern, Institute for Environmental Solutions, Denver, CO      10/15-8/16
- Wrote grant proposals for and designed a program that used behavioral science community engagement strategies to reduce the risk of contaminants of emerging concern in local waterways
  - Promoted work through social media
- Graduate Student Representative, CU-Boulder Environmental Studies Colloquium Committee
- Planned speaker series for national environmental science and policy thought leaders      8/15-4/17
  - Managed budget for catering and speaker expenses
-

MISCELLANEOUS

---

- Computer skills: Microsoft Office suite, Adobe suite, SPSS, R, Stata, ArcGIS
- Relevant graduate level courses: Transportation and Land Use Planning; Quantitative Methods in Policy Analysis; Science and Technology Policy; The Problem Orientation; Power, Justice, and Climate Change, Survey Research Methods, Population and Environment; Intro to GIS
- Language skills: Conversational in French