

TRISHA L. CULP
Denver, Colorado

PROFESSIONAL WORK HISTORY

Environmental and Water Law Attorney

September 2007 - present

Burns, Figa & Will, P.C., Greenwood Village CO

Water rights: Litigation and transactional practice representing water conservancy districts, business entities, and individuals with water supply issues.

Environmental: Regulatory work including permit negotiations and compliance, enforcement actions, and administrative rulemaking hearings. Advise clients on compliance and enforcement issues involving water quality, hazardous waste, endangered species, and air quality. Land use work including environmental due diligence review and zoning. Expertise in water quality pollutant trading through execution of trade agreements and drafting of watershed trading guidelines.

Environmental Attorney

September 2004 – August 2007

Jackson Kelly PLLC, Denver CO

Environmental associate responsible for strategically addressing complex legal issues regarding water quality, air quality, endangered species, hazardous waste, and EIS issues. Represent clients before federal, state, and administrative bodies.

Law Clerk

May 2003 - May 2004

Caplan and Earnest, L.L.C., Boulder CO

Law clerk practicing commercial litigation, school law, health law, and business transactional matters.

Environmental Extern

January - May 2004

Western Mining Action Project, Boulder CO

Extern in a non-profit organization practicing environmental law. Projects included issues regarding state air quality regulations and federal mining regulations.

Researcher

January - May 2003; June – August 2002

University of Colorado, College of Law, Boulder CO

Researcher for Nutshell regarding International Environmental Law and other environmental law issues.

EDUCATION

Juris Doctor (2004)

University of Colorado School of Law, Boulder CO

Honors:

- Graduated cum laude
- Class Rank 27/156 (Top 20%)
- Bernard J. Seeman Scholarship Recipient (Outstanding academic ability)
- Dean's List

Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy (2000); Bachelor of Arts, Psychology (2000)

Bradley University, Peoria IL

Honors:

- Graduated magna cum laude
- Philosophy Student of the Year (2000)
- Honor Roll
- Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society (Outstanding academic ability)
- Dean's Scholarship (Outstanding academic ability)