

Paul W. Lander, Ph.D.
Boulder CO

Specializations: Urban Water, Conservation Programming, Urban Ecology
Capabilities: Communication, Planning, Management, Education, Research

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Water Conservation Specialist, City of Boulder, CO 1992-present

Co-Chair, Colorado Water Wise Council 2001-present
Chair, Metro Water Conservation, Inc. 1998-2001
Non-profits promoting water efficiency through programs, publications and cooperation.

Active in conservation for over 25 years, with program experience in energy, land, and water conservation, with: City of Boulder, City of Longmont, South Suburban Parks and Recreation District-Littleton, County of Boulder, Trust for Public Land-Seattle, State of Washington Scenic Rivers Program, Minnesota Energy Agency.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Society of Landscape Architects-Full Member
Water Conservation and Sustainability Interest Groups
American Water Works Association-Full Member
WaterWise Committee: online newsletter production for conservation community
Colorado WaterWise Council, Co-Chair
Irrigation Association
American Association of Geographers

EDUCATION

PhD in Geography University of Colorado-Boulder May 2005
Concentrations: water resources; landscape planning & design; conservation education
Master of Landscape Architecture University of Washington, Seattle 1990
Certificate of Paralegal Studies Denver Paralegal Institute, Denver, CO 1985
B. A. Environmental Conservation University of Colorado, Boulder 1983