

Sarah Turner

(720)335-9345

sarahturnerjournalism@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To gain a different perspective on issues that pertain to the most significant political challenges facing our generation; to develop an education and work ethic central to public policy; to understand history as a tool to articulate and develop policy.

EDUCATION

University of Colorado - Denver

Bachelor of Arts, History

- Minors in Philosophy and Multidisciplinary Research
- Cumulative GPA: 3.959 / 4.00, summa cum laude
- Graduation Date: May 2020

Graduate Certificate in Environmental Policy and Management

- Completion Date: May 2021

SPECIAL PROJECTS & RESEARCH

Senior Seminar Research Paper

- Group project on consumption practices and its history in the U.S., employing structuration theory to identify structures and their impact on individual action

Superposition: A Choose Your Own Adventure Book

- Fictional take on how global decisions would alter the natural environment

A Glass Half Full

- History thesis on the development of water rights in Denver, winner of the Myra Rich Prize (awarded to the best senior thesis in graduating class)

Who's Your Daddy?

- History essay on alimony payments in Puritan New England, published in 2018

EXPERIENCE

Intern

Spring 2020 - Present

The WildEarth Guardians

Annotate county contracts for website presentation, participate in outreach programs

Head Admin

February 2018 - Present

NorthStar Fluid Solutions

Create data entries for AP/AR invoices, prepare documents for accounting, deposit checks

Office Manager

October 2014 - March 2020

Casa Bonita

Process new hire/termination paperwork, program sales reports in Excel, establish training protocols, answer phone calls, schedule front office staff, record restaurant inventory

HONORS & AWARDS

University of Honors and Leadership program, Deans List, National Society of Collegiate Scholars, published in university's Historical Studies Journal, Myra Rich Prize, Latin Honors